Clarification on Corporate Identity
Fabtech Technologies Limited & Fabtech Technologies Cleanrooms Limited are Separate Entities

Mumbai, November 18, 2025

It has come to our attention that there is a misconception among investors and the public that Fabtech Technologies Limited (FTL) and Fabtech Technologies Cleanrooms Limited (FTCL) are the same company. We wish to clarify that both are distinct, independently listed entities operating under separate management and business models.

Fabtech Universe

International focused start-to-finish life sciences infrastructure partner, enabling global pharmaceutical manufacturing and driving affordable, accessible healthcare worldwide

Fabtech – Listed Main Board

www.fabtechnologies.com

India-focused Integrated cleanroom infrastructure company powering life sciences, green energy and data center

Fabtech Cleanroom – Listed SME
“FABCLEAN”

Fabtech Technologies Limited (FTL) – (Listed on Main Board – NSE & BSE / FABTECH / INE0HF201011)

FTL is an international turnkey life sciences infrastructure company, delivering start-to-finish pharmaceutical and biotech manufacturing solutions across 62 countries. The company integrates design, engineering, process systems, and validation to build GMP-compliant, energy-efficient, and contamination-controlled facilities, that support pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and healthcare facilities worldwide.

Fabtech Technologies Cleanrooms Limited (FTCL) – (Listed on BSE SME / FABCLEAN / INE0HSD01011)

FTCL is an India-focused cleanroom infrastructure company, offering in-house manufactured modular partitions, HVAC, and MEP systems for pharma, biotech, semiconductor, and green energy sectors. With FM Global-certified solutions, FTCL ensures safety, compliance, and innovation in controlled-environment engineering.

While both share the Fabtech legacy, FTL and FTCL function as independent entities within their respective domains.
